

The Presidency of the Student Chamber of the Council of HEIs expresses its solidarity and deepest condolences to Bacha Khan University in Charsadda, Pakistan and to bereaved by student victims of a terrorist attack.

Education is a means from which the terrorists fear, and therefore, often it is their objective. The Presidency of the Student Chamber is not indifferent to threaten academic freedoms and believe that terrorist groups may be defeated just by the values of education and knowledge.

